

Join SRS/Green Mountain Sponsored Captive Insurance Company and VCIA in Atlanta

Join VCIA and your peers in Atlanta, Georgia on February 6th for an afternoon of captive insurance education on the “Strategic Advantages of Captives” followed by a reception perfect for networking with other captive professionals.

This session will focus on the basics of captive insurance companies; the reasons for formation, the feasibility process and key issues in putting a successful captive program together. Attendees will gain an understanding of the cost structures associated with captives and the capital requirements. A brief overview of the Vermont domicile will also be discussed.
